

remove broken strap clip and replace with new one

Drill two holes through the new strap clip using the two mould holes as a guide. Ensure you do not drill through the Babyminder moulding remove the two security screws

Screw the two security screws back in place. Then replace the sticker back into position.